Course Description

Korean Language

This is an elementary Korean language course designed for those who have no prior (or very limited) knowledge in Korean. The course goal is to provide a basic foundation that will enable students to acquire and develop language skills in listening, speaking, reading, and writing in Korean. Throughout the process of learning these skills, emphasis will be on the student's ability to perform in real-life situations through task-based practice.

Korean-Japanese Society and Culture

This is an introductory course designed to introduce students to important elements of Korean and Japanese culture. This course aims to identify a unique pattern of cultural construction of both countries in the major aspects of Korea and Japan's pre-modern and modern society and life. Various multimedia materials will be used in conjunction with lectures and class discussions to promote students' understanding of the basics of Korean and Japanese culture.
